

New Jersey has enacted a Do Not Call law that is more protective of its citizens than the Federal law. I understand that the FCC is deciding whether to let the NJ law remain in effect. As an impacted citizen I would urge the FCC to allow the NJ law to remain in effect. The relief I've had from the implementation of this law has been significant and would be missed if it were deemed no longer in effect. Thanks